A Strange Burial.

Yesterday afternoon Frederick Burns was buried at the State Prison, having died of heart disease at three o'clock yesterday morning. Some of his fellow prisoners acted as pall bearers, and the guards walked alongside with loaded rifles escorting the pall bearers. It was a strange sight to see the convicts standing over the coffin of their late comrade while they themselves were under surveillance. Rev. G. R. Davis read the burial service. The deceased was aged 27 years, a native of New York, and sent to State Prison one year for a burglary committed in this city. He had a few months more to serve when death commuted his sentence.

Janauschek.

Madam Janauschek had an immense audience last evening at Haverly's to witness her great impersonation of Countess of Mansfelt in "Mother and Son." This play is not the one formerly played by the Union Square Company, but an entirely different version being on going to Janauschek. It is a strong emotional drama and as the Countess (Janauschek) has ample opportunities to display her great powers as an artist. The company support is one of the best that has visited this city for years, and was well received by the audience. [Chicago Tribune.]

Madam Janauschek will appear here in "Mother and Son," on Wednesday, May 23.

One Thousand.

This is the name of a new compound made for beautifying the skin, probably called so because one thousand women out of every one thousand and one use it. It can be found no where in the State of Nevada except at Foster's drug store, he being the sole agent for the sale of the compound. No woman who has ever tried it uses anything else. It removes freckles, tan and all blotches and discolorations of the skin by putting the pores in a healthy state.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

The City Trustees Decide That They Are Not Legal.

There was considerable excitement in the city yesterday when the fact became known that the bills for the clerks, judges, etc., who served at the primary election were not allowed, the City Trustees holding that they had not ordered the primary and that it was not a legal election.

This makes a test case of Brumsey's election law passed at the last session of the Legislature. Its provisions make a primary election legal. Section 1 reads as follows:

SECTION 1. Any Committee or body authorized by the rules or customs of a political association, organization or party to call elections of or for such association, organization or party, in calling such election, shall, at the time of making the call, adopt a resolution which shall set forth:

First—That a primary election will be held, giving the time when, and the place or places where such election will be held, and the hours between which the polls shall be kept open.

Second—The names of the persons to constitute the Election Board at each polling place. If the persons named by the Committee be not present or decline to serve, then such officers shall be appointed as provided by the election law of this State.

The City Central Committee appointed the primary and this body certainly comes under the head of "any committee or body authorized by the rules or customs of a political association." The persons who served were the appointees of the Committee and will insist upon their pay. If the primary election was null and void, it is held that the general election was and that three of the members of the present Board are not legally elected. The case is an interesting one and will probably be tested in the courts.

The Wire Fence.

Mr. Skeleton, agent of the new fence, stretched four or five rods of it in front of the Capitol Square yesterday and it was pronounced by everybody as the "coming fence." It was thoroughly tested and examined and pronounced perfect, both in respect to strength, durability and cheapness. The only dissenting voice was Farmer Treadway, who attempted to sit on the barbed wire and found the wire "unpalatable." Sam Jones inspected it and said he wanted a hundred yards to fence in the Yellow Jacket mine. Seriously speaking, the fence was a surprise to everyone who examined it, as few supposed that a fence could be put up for a dollar a rod and be substantial. When it was known that the State right was for sale several parties were made offers to take it, but so far none have been accepted. Practical men recognize the amount of money to be made by the sale of such a fence. Thousands of acres of land in this State would be fenced in to-morrow if the owners knew that it could be done for a dollar a rod and at the same time furnish the land owner with a fence that would be impregnable to cattle and fire.

Manager Piper's Chirography.

When Manager Piper writes a letter he dips his forefinger in ink, scrawls the epistle and folds it immediately for fear it will get dry. The result is a letter on the first half of the page and a reverse duplicate on the lower half. This refers to a half-page letter. When he writes a full page and folds it, there is an original and duplicate on each page. It compels a man to stand on his head and employ two looking glasses to read the letter. One was received from him at this office yesterday in which the only word that could be made out was "Janauschek." The balance looked like Mr. Piper's theater after the fire.

Last week the APPEAL sent out several hundred dollars in subscription bills to "solid representative men of Nevada," and A. Livingston of Genoa was the only one of the lot who responded. All bills of this description which remain unpaid by June 1st will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

ORIENTAL OCCULTISM.

A Journalist's Views of the Mysterious Subject.

Mr. Parsons, for many years editor of the Record-Union, is writing articles upon the subject of occultism, which are being read with interest everywhere. Mr. Parsons is a man of acknowledged ability, being one of the most logical writers the coast ever produced, unusually well informed upon general subjects and not a person ever accused of being anything other than a man of sound ideas. He has spent many years in India, where he asserts are a sect of Adepts or Brothers who are capable of doing things which seemingly transcend all bounds of human possibilities. He claims the following powers for the Adepts:

Power to absolutely control spirits and to make the spirits slaves to human will.

To separate the soul from the body, allow the body to be buried for months and to join the soul to the body and bring the body to life again. [An officer of the English army writing for the Scribner magazine asserts that he placed a guard of soldiers over a tomb hewn from the solid rock in which a body apparently dead remained sealed up for a year and was resurrected by the Adepts.] He further states that Adepts can communicate with each other several hundred miles apart instantaneously through no other apparent medium than the air. That they can plant a seed in the ground and inside of five minutes persons can eat the ripened fruit of a tree grown from this seed. Mr. Parsons alleges to have eaten fruit thus produced. Dr. Buys of San Francisco, who lived in India fourteen years, solemnly asserted to the writer that he had undergone a similar experience. Mr. Parsons further claims that the Adepts through spiritual agency can manufacture any article instantly, and relates an instance of seven persons in India going into the woods to have a picnic and on spreading the table found they had but six cups and saucers. Madame Blavatsky, author of "Isis Unveiled," who belongs to the Adepts, was asked to produce the seventh cup and saucer. Her feat is thus described:

Madame Blavatsky, as usual, held mental conversation with one of the Brothers, and then wandered about in the neighborhood of where we were sitting—that is to say, within a radius of half a dozen yards from our picnic cloth—I closely following, waiting to see what would happen. Then she marked a spot on the ground and called one of the gentlemen of the party to bring a knife to dig with. The place chosen was the edge of a little slope covered with thick weeds and grass and shrubby undergrowth. The gentleman with the knife tore up these in the first place, with some difficulty, as the roots were tough and intertwined. Cutting, then, into the matted roots and earth with the knife, and pulling away the debris with his hands, he came at last to the edge of something white, which turned out, as it was completely excavated, to be the required cup. A corresponding saucer was a foot after a little more digging. Both objects were in among the roots, which spread everywhere through the ground, so that it seemed as if the roots were growing around them. The cup and saucer both corresponded exactly, as regards their pattern, with those that had been brought to the picnic, and constituted a seventh cup and saucer when brought back to where we were to have breakfast. The author adds that the original set of china was of a somewhat peculiar pattern, "bought a good many years previously in London, and which assuredly could never have been matched in Simla."

The editor of a London scientific journal visited India to disprove these stories from a scientific standpoint, and on his return to London wrote an account of the wonderful things he saw, adding: "That these things were actually done there is no possibility of doubt."

The Prince of Wales also corroborates these narratives and of late years the scientists of Europe who had for a long time made light of the alleged transactions in India are now seriously investigating them. So far the only explanation they have advanced is based on the theory that the Adepts are able to so mesmerize the spectator that he imagines he sees things which he really does not. No matter how much Mr. Parsons' statements will shock the credulity of the Record-Union readers, they will interest them all the same.

Sam Wagner is very sick and his recovery is doubtful.

IN BRIEF.

Good ore is being taken out of Union and Sierra Nevada.

J. H. Marshall left for Portland, Oregon, last evening.

Acting Governor Loughton is down with pneumonia.

It is rumored that Hume Yerington will bring a wife back from the Bay.

The Journal is authority for saying that Fair has no idea of resigning.

The Savings Bank case has begun in Reno and the fight opens on technicalities.

How the British lion must have felt when Sullivan threw Mitchell over the ropes head first with his feet sticking up in the air.

Union and Sierra Nevada made a most gratifying advance yesterday, and the whole line was strong with an upward tendency. A big strike may be looked for most any day in the North-end and Chollar.

Mr. Louis Morganstein, who has been for the past ten years or more identified with the show business, was in the city yesterday. He has the reputation of never traveling with any but the best.

The latest rumor relative to resuming operations on the Nevada and Oregon is that trains will be put on June 1, and that Manning, Berry and Balch will be the lessees. The locomotive "Santa Cruz" will be fixed up at the V. & T. shops.

The case of Mrs. Neenan vs. the Savage Mining Company was called in the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday. She sues for $5,000 for the loss of her husband by an accident in the mine. The panel was exhausted and a fresh lot ordered gathered at 10 o'clock this morning.

Miss Frances Willard.

The President of the Woman's Temperance Union, will lecture this evening at the Methodist Church. Miss Willard comes with the highest recommendations as a lecturer. As she will lecture in Carson but once, all who desire to hear an intellectual treat will do well to be on hand this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

TO-MORROW.

BUILT OF TUBULAR IRON FENCE POSTS. IRON RANCH FENCE.

The Ross Ranch, Farm and Vineyard Fence is now in the Market. It is built with iron posts and barbed wire; the post being made of wrought and cast-iron. The top of the post is made of one-inch gas pipe and pierced with holes through which a plain wire is inserted, which fastens the barbed wire to the post. The post is cast with three flanges and is twenty-one inches long. The flanges render the post immovable when inserted in any soil. These posts are placed two rods apart, with an iron stay between, and there can be any number of wires and any kind of wire used. Three men can build one mile of fence per day on good ground. Fire cannot burn it, cyclones cannot move it, and floods cannot wash it away.

I sell fence at $1 per rod for three-wire fence, and $1.25 for five-wire fence complete, and to agents at reduced rates, which enable a good live man to make from $100 to $500 a month on an investment of a small capital in territory, and any one wishing to purchase any County, State or Territory, can get a bargain by calling on or writing me of his desire.
